Talk of a New School Building.

There is some talk of erecting a high school building to take the place of the one the school is now occupying. The trustees say that the building now being used is inadequate, and the time and necessity for new quarters for come. It is believed that a building sufficient to meet all requirements can be erected for between $35,000 and $40,000. To do this, bonds will have to be issued or a direct tax levied. We have heard quite a number of expressions for and against the proposition, but a majority of the tax payers that we have heard express themselves favor a new building. As we understand the board of trustees, governing the school, will have to take the first step.

True Akers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Akers, near this place, reached home a few days ago. He entered the army when the United States declared war on Germany, went to France and did valiant service. He was wounded and at one time was reported dead. He seems to be in perfect health and is a fine looking young man. He was on nine different fronts in France and was in five battles. He is at home on a furlough.

The Adair Circuit Court opens today. Judge Carter and Commonwealth's Attorney A. A. Huddleston are here and business will be dispatched as rapidly as possible. There are quite a number of misdemeanor cases before the court and several felony. The civil docket is very light. The grand and petit juries will be empaneled this afternoon. Next week we will give a list of the men making up the two juries.

The meeting at the Christian Church closed last Sunday night. Up to last Thursday night there had been fifteen additions to the Church, fourteen by conversion and baptism, and one from another Church. Eld. Bennett, who assisted the pastor, is known here to be a very effective, strong speaker, and large congregations heard him throughout the meeting.

Early plowing this fall, it is said will lessen next year the damage done by cut worms, army worms, grass hoppers and other insects. Most of the insects which did damage in the country this year began their work last fall when they went into the ground to hibernate. The eggs were laid in soil which was protected by stubble, weeds or sod.

The election is over. There are lots of people who are not satisfied with the result. Satisfied or not satisfied, business must go on, and every body should try to make it as lively as possible.

Too much rain for corn in the shock. From what we can learn from the farmers a great deal of it will be seriously damaged.

Mr. Wyatt Conover has removed to the residence, on Bomar Heights, that he recently purchased of Mr. Henry Hurt.

County Clerk Neat issued marriage licenses a few days ago to Mr. Ben Soliday and Mrs. Laura Price. The wedding will take place at the residence of the bride, 36.

Robbed at White Oak church.

Daniel Skaggs, who lives at White-wood, Green county, came into Columbia last Wednesday night, went to Sam Bridgewater's store and reported that he had been robbed and beaten near the White Oak Church, this county. He said that before going to White Oak he met a man in Campbellsville who gave him the name as Hagan. Skaggs was on the hunt of old plug horses wanting them for their hides. Hagan told him he had a lot of old plugs, and that if he would meet him Wednesday at the White Oak Church, in Adair county, he would sell them to him. He went to the designated place, met Hagan, who told him that the horses were in a field below the church, and they started to them. They had not gone but a short distance when they met two other men, both grabbing him, one holding his hand over his mouth while the other two commenced beating him. In a short time he was released, after the men had taken all money he had, fifty-two dollars. Mr. Bridgewater knows Skaggs well, and he says that he told the truth.

J. W. Tupman & Sons.

Mr. J. J. McBrayer, a young lawyer, of Lexington, well-known politician and speaker, delivered a number of addresses in Adair county last week, in the interest of the Democratic ticket. He had large crowds at all his speakings and all his hearers were delighted with the manner in which he handled the issues in the campaign. From Adair county he went to Lincoln and Boyle counties, to fill appointments, running up to the election. He is evidently a young man of promise, one who, if he lives, will make his mark in this Commonwealth.

Thousands are teaching when they ought to be taught, thousands believe themselves wise when their ignorance is lamentable; thousands believe themselves clothed in gold when they are only thinly plated and the copper shows through in many places. The wisest are comparatively ignorant and thousands of men who have grand ideas of their own abilities will some day wake up to the realization that they have been laboring under a large mistake.

The word from Miss Mary Miller, who is in St. Anthony Hospital, having undergone a serious operation, is that she is improving nicely.

Mr. R. S. Feather, an uncle of Mr. F. H. Durham, this place, was recently married in Lebanon to Mrs. Susie Holland.

Mr. F. L. Wilson, who has been a leading merchant at Russell Springs since he reached his majority, sold his stock of general merchandise a short time ago and will locate at Sulphur Springs, Texas. He was here, Thursday morning on his return from the oil fields in the Lone Star State, and as soon as he can arrange his matters at Russell Springs he will return to Texas and engage in the wholesale grocery business, the place of business to be Sulphur Spring's. He has gone into a company, and he will be one of the managers of the concern. While on this trip he invested in oil stock, and he says the people are wild in Texas over the oil industry, and that many are becoming immensely wealthy. "To give you an idea of the immensity of the business," said he, myself and others stood at one place and counted one thousand derricks up and drilling.

Hung Himself.

The people living in the Glenfork country were greatly shocked last Wednesday about the noon hour, when the intelligence spread over the country that Uriah Antle, a farmer, about twenty-five years old had ended his life by hanging. He left his home early in the morning to do some plowing in a field not far from his residence, and at twelve o'clock he did not report for dinner. Members of his family became uneasy and they went in search of him. He was found hanging to a limb, and perhaps had been dead several hours when friends reached the scene. He leaves a wife and a child or two. His wife was a Miss Collins before her marriage, a daughter of Mr. George Collins, Dr. C. M. Russell, Coroner of the county, was called and an inquest was held, the following being the verdict:

"We, the Jur., find the deceased came to his death by strangulation inflicted by himself."

It was learned at the inquest that he had been despondent for several weeks.

Married in Jamestown.

Mr. Herbert McFarland, an excellent young man of Russell county, and Miss Irene Morrison, a popular young lady, daughter of Mr. Robert Morrison, were married in the Christian church, Jamestown, a few days since. The couple will reside in Jamestown.

If you like your town, say so. If you don't, keep still and try to improve whatever does not suit you. Remember that when you start knocking the town which you live in, you are also talking against yourself, your family and your business. If other places seem more desirable than your own home town, it is only because they are at such a distance that you cannot perceive their imperfections. You are living now in the best town on earth. Tell people about it.

Mr. L. C. Hindman is having a considerable amount of work done on the property he purchased from Mrs. Mary Biggs, on Garnett Ave. A fresh coat of paint and concrete walks. Messrs. Young and Feese are doing the work.

Beautify your own property all you can, then do all you can to beautify your streets. Be friendly with everybody and courteous to strangers. Your own civility will help make good impressions and will be carried away and cherished.

There is an aesthetic side to the good roads movement that is of no little importance. What is drearier, what is more depressing than to drive along a country road deep with mud and furrowed by ruts, the water standing in pools in the road and not in the ditches as it would if the roads were properly built.

Valuable Home for Sale.

We offer the brick residence containing 8 rooms, and known as the property of Mrs. Kate Smith. It is located on Burkesville street, just below the Bank of Columbia. Splendid water on the place. For further particulars see Hallow'een.

Friday evening was a time of much merriment at Lindsey-Wilson, when the students met in the gymnasium to mingle with the spooks, goblins and black cats that have acquired the habit of appearing once during the year.

The gym was decorated with bright colored autumn leaves and jack o-lantern, which made a very appropriate setting for the many amusing as well as attractive costumes worn by the students.

Miss Sada Mullinix, dressed as autumn, was the young lady who won the prize, while Mr. Lura Harrison as a dusky young woman, was the lucky young man.

Games and contests were engaged in as well as glimpses of the future as seen through the prophecies of a Turkish fortune teller.

Refreshments consisting of ginger bread, punch, candy and chestnuts were served.

It Has Gone to Stay.

There has been some whiskey drinking about Columbia since the lid shut down, but nothing like the amount that was consumed eight months or a year ago. It is said to be very difficult to get now, and what is procured is bought illegally. It brings from six to eight dollars a quart, and there are but few drinkers who are able to pay the price. Taking every thing into consideration, pertaining to the sale and drinking of ardent spirit, there are but few dryer towns than Columbia.

Men who use to consume their share and a little more, now have money to meet their daily demands, and they look better, and they evidently feel better and they are better citizens, husbands, fathers, and brothers. It looks like the last requiem has been sung over the grace of their worst enemy, John Barleycorn.

We were mistaken when we stated, last week, that one of Mr. E. L. Sinclair's sons drew a lot at the sale put on Monday of last week. It was a son of Al. Sinclair, who held the lucky number.

KENTUCKY BAPTISTS PUT CAMPAIGN FIRST

Rev. J. R. Black, Publicity Director, Describes Progress In the Blue-Grass State To Date.

REV. J. R. BLACK

By REV. J. R. BLACK
Kentucky Publicity Director

The organization of Southern Baptists for the raising of 75 million dollars for all phases of work fostered by this people has now been pushed out into all of the 18 Southern states have followed the suggested organization. Kentucky is not behind in the number for in the 76 district associations there are now 70 associational organizers, 74 associational publicity men and 60 W. M. U. organizers. It is the purpose to have one of each of these in each association and then in the local church there will be an organizer in addition to the pastor, who is the director, a W. M. U. organizer and three boosters, who will do the publicity work. The organization has also extended until practically all of the 1,850 Baptist churches in Kentucky have these officers in charge and every effort is now being made to bring information and prepare for the great drive which will be made in one week's time, the date of which is November 30th to December 7th.

The state organization is in charge of Rev. O. E. Bryan, Corresponding Secretary of Missions Louisville, Ky., Prof. John L. Hill, of Georgetown College, State Organizer and Director, Georgetown, Ky., and Rev. J. R. Black, Publicity Director, Louisville, Ky.

At the general office in Louisville the most encouraging news is being continually received. The people all over the state are so enthusiastic about the campaign that from every quarter responses are now coming and some churches cannot wait for the drive to be made but are now pledging and giving more than was asked of them. The last message received was from Poplar Grove church in Graves county, which was asked for $5,000, and after a sermon by the pastor pledges were made and the amount was more than raised. This has been done in many other places.

The information that is coming to the Baptists is probably one of the greatest benefits that is being derived from the campaign. A pastor in a mountainous association who had been preaching for over thirty years and had always maintained a position against the support of the ministry, and who did not believe in missions, stated at the meeting of the district association which he attended that he had learned more in this meeting of what God intended he should do to send the gospel to the other side, as well as to his neighbor, than in all his life before. A layman who had never given to missions or much for any object of the church, said he wanted to give $200 a year for the five years of the campaign. A railroad man upon hearing the call gave at once a fifty dollar Victory bond and said this was not to be counted as his part when the drive was made. From these to a great gift of $30,000 by Mr. George E. Hays of Louisville the Baptist people are being reached and are enthusiastic to have a part in the great undertaking.

The one day in October that will be emphasized above all other days is the fourth Sunday, October 26th, which is the day set aside and known as the day for "Calling Out the Called." Kentucky expects to have at least 300 young people to dedicate their lives for special religious work on this day. Ministers, pastors, Sunday school workers, pastors' assistants, and B. Y. P. U. workers will hear the call for these different lines of service on this day.

One of the most hopeful signs that the Baptists have is the fact that the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary had on October 1st the largest opening of any in the past three years. The W. M. U. Training School at Louisville had 123 young ladies enrolled for special training. Everywhere the campaign has gotten first place in the thinking of the Baptists, and at this time Kentucky Baptists are going forward to do a little of what they have been waiting many years to do.

Miss Harriet Smith, Y. W. C. A. Student Secretary in China, Relates Amazing Story of How 20,000 Students Organized Themselves.

By BERNICE GRISWOLD.

Miss Harriet Smith, for ten years a student secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association in Shanghai, China, relates the amazing story of how 20,000 Chinese students organized themselves to oust the militarists from Government offices in Peking and how they succeeded in becoming the leaders of China.

Fearing that China was not to be protected from the aggression of other nations by the Peace Treaty, as she had expected to be, some 20,000 students, all of them between the ages of twelve and twenty-one years and including 8,000 girls, organized themselves into the Chinese Students' Patriotic Society immediately after the publication of the first draft of the Peace Treaty to fight for Chinese rights.

Their first move was to strike from school or, rather, from lectures, as they remained in their respective schools and spent so many hours daily in private study. They then organized into bands for getting out propaganda literature and for public speaking in the country and small towns and in the tea shops in poorer districts of the cities in order that they might reach the vast numbers of people who could not read.

Immediately upon organizing, the students published their demands, four in number: (1) that the militarists, who as a party were pro-Japanese and practically controlled the Government at Peking, be put out of office; (2) that Shantung be returned to China; (3) that the twenty-one demands made by Japan in 1915 be cancelled; (4) that there be freedom of speech and of the press. They also insisted that the Chinese constitution be finished.

An immense amount of literature was put out, much of it in the new phonetic script which is being launched in China, so that the uneducated classes might learn what was happening. Students lectured everywhere on the demands, stirring the people to patriotism. When many of them were arrested while parading in the streets of Peking they formed an Association of Imprisoned Students within the prison and refused to be released, picketing the stockade themselves when Government guards were taken away, until the Government submitted a proper apology for having imprisoned them in the beginning.

When it became evident that economic pressure was all that would be effective both the bankers' and merchants' guilds were called upon to back the students. "In less than two hours," Miss Smith said, "the shutters were up at every shop in that great city of Shanghai, where telephones are few and communication difficult. Every shop, whether large or small, was closed. The laboring people, feeling as patriotic as the bankers, merchants and students, also joined the general strike. For a week everything was closed—shops, money exchanges, fish markets, shipping, everything. The students struggled to keep public utilities running. The telephone service was stopped for a short time, but the students soon had it running again. They held meetings day and night, try-

FIFTY Red Cross nurses, most of them recently returned from overseas service, are to meet in Cleveland, Sept. 18-20, to discuss means of preventing disease. CAMP WORKERS AID MEN RETURNING TO CIVILIAN LIFE

RED Cross Home Service workers in Camp Taylor (Ky.) and Camp Sherman (O.) have found their assistance required more and more as time passes by soldiers returning to civilian life who need aid in making the change. During July 24,677 men passed through the Kentucky demobilization camp and of this number 2,502 new cases are recorded in the camp Home Service records. In addition 2,270 men applied for information, mostly in regard to insurance. This total puts Camp Taylor at the head of the list for all camps in the country in volume of work of this kind. Camp Sherman stands third.

WILL BUILD FARM HOME FOR WAIFS

"Back To the Soil" For Destitute In Kentucky Children's Home

GOVERNOR INDORSES PLAN

The Kentucky Children's Home Society, exclusively devoted to the care of homeless children, will make a drive throughout the state the week of October 27 to 31, for the purpose of raising $300,000. Definite plans have been made and Governor Black has issued a proclamation asking the unqualified support of all Kentuckians.

The Kentucky Children's Home is one of the state's unique institutions. During its twenty-five years of existence it has sent 9,000 children into good homes and has insured them "a square deal" from the world.

It cares for children who otherwise would be uncared for. It gives protection to those who otherwise would have no protection. It is operated by a personnel that works because its members love to work among children.

Need New Equipment.

At present, the society is housed in a group of old residences in Louisville. These buildings are not adapted to the needs of the institution and children are crowded. They must sleep in crowded rooms and play on crowded play grounds.

When the drive is completed, the society plans to eliminate this congestion. Eighty-six acres of land have been purchased ten miles from Louisville on the Louisville and Nashville railroad and a complete cottage farm system has been planned.

This will give children all the room they need, will insure their health and take them from the muck and confining influences of the city.

The society now has 200 children under its care. When the new home is completed it will be able to care for many more.

The success of the drive is not a question of locality. The society is a state institution and cares for the state's homeless children. Those in one section are as interested as those in another.

Given Wide Support.

The proposed campaign for funds has thus far received unified support. Clergymen, teachers and prominent citizens have signified their approval. One hundred and ten county school superintendents are backing the proposition. Hundreds of teachers say they will do all in their power to insure its success.

School children who have homes will be given opportunities to assist in providing a home for those children who have none.

Each child will be asked to give. All schools will be solicited by a committee. There will be no competition, but pupils will be asked to contribute what they can.

Citizens' committees are being formed and will canvass the town in which organized.

Remember, it's for the children who haven't the home your child has.

The success of the drive will give health to children who otherwise would be emaciated and weak. It will give them an opportunity to become good citizens.

The proposition will shortly be up to the people of Kentucky. Kentucky will see that it goes through with a success.

For Sale.

ALL UP TO THE SCHOOL-MA'AMS

Kentucky Teachers Are Most Important Factor In $300,000 Drive

GILBERT URGES ACTION

"The country school-ma'am—that faithful, endearing bulwark of progress and enlightenment—is the personage on whom the success of Kentucky's $300,000 drive to build a new Children's Home depends. The country school-ma'am is the one who is in the direct position to take charge of the campaign in her school and get the children interested," according to George L. Schon, superintendent of the Kentucky Children's Home Society.

V. O. Gilbert, state superintendent of schools, urges all teachers to put their best efforts into the campaign until it closes the last week in October. "County superintendents are often too busy to enter personally into the campaign, and perhaps the teachers think it is not up to them to take the initiative in the matter. I want to urge all county superintendents to put forth their best efforts into the campaign, but if some should happen to forget their duty in this matter, I want to see the teachers themselves take hold and push it through to the great success it deserves. Many of the prominent people over the state who would be willing to direct a campaign in their locality, are busy taking part in the political campaign. Here is a chance for teachers over the state to show their initiative and qualities of leadership and management in their schools and communities."

A Business Investment.

The new home which will be built after the campaign, will be a group of cottages on a farm ten miles from Louisville. This will provide wholesome surroundings for the children, and the duties connected with the management of the farm will give vocational training to the older children in the care of the Kentucky Children's Home Society.

"It is not only a good, charitable cause, but a sound business investment," Mr. Schon said. "Instead of the constant yearly drain to provide for the Kentucky children that come into our care, we will have fifty acres of ground upon which to raise provisions, which will more than pay for the cost of the food supplies. The Odd Fellows' Home at Eminence, Ky., which cultivates thirty-seven acres, raises more food than is consumed, and there is a surplus to apply on other expenses."

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. In Serbia.

As far back as the first winter of the war, the Red Cross sent to Serbia a sanitary commission that effectively checked the scourge of typhus, but after the United States entered the conflict, the Red Cross was able, in August, 1917, to send a full commission that carried on extensive relief operations among the suffering refugees of the tortured nation. Hospitals were established, the refugees fed, clothed and given medical attention, the army supplied with much needed dental treatment, farm machinery, and seeds provided to help the Serbs reclaim their land to productivity, and, not least, measures undertaken for the succor of the children. The terrible condition into which these helpless victims of the war had fallen is well portrayed by this photograph of a little Serbian girl wearing the rags and expression of hopeless dismay that were all she possessed when the Red Cross came.

HOME SERVICE USED TO FIND MISSING MEN

THE Home Service Sections of the American Red Cross in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky are helping to locate soldiers who have disappeared since their discharge from military service.

One is Sergt. Russell Irving Viles, discharged June 17 from service with the Motor Transport Corp 813.

Private Harry E. Ross, Co. H, 26th Infantry, First Division, A. E. F., was wounded while serving at Solissons July 19, 1918. Since that time only indefinite reports have reached his mother, Mrs. Clark D. Ross, 4042 Third St., Des Moines, Ia.

Private Joseph Burch Walker of Montague, Tenn., is believed to be mentally disabled as the result of gas. He was discharged from Camp Dodge in June.

Private George Nelson, C. E. F., has been missing since February 1, 1919. He is suffering a lapse of memory following shell shock.

Any of these men may be in the Lake Division, ignorant of names and addresses.

JUNIORS WANT MILLION MEMBERS FOR THIS YEAR

A MILLION Juniors in the Lake Division in 1919—that is the slogan of the Red Cross department of Junior Membership.

The division is 200,000 short of that number, but hopes to enroll that many—and more—in the membership drive the Juniors will conduct in the schools during September.

Coal is becoming scarce in Louisville and unless the strike is settled before cold weather people in all large cities will suffer for lack of fuel.

Both the Democratic and Republican parties will now look over the country for Presidential candidates, and in a few months the aspirants will be before the country.

L. Goins, of Bolivia, Mo., was engaged by a couple of sharpers in Louisville in the month of September and swindled out of $13,000 in Liberty bonds. He kept the matter a secret until a few days ago, thinking he would run across the men. Finally he laid the matter before United States Marshal James. If Goins ever expects to have $13,000 again he had better be at work trying to make it as he will never again see his new found friends.

Reservations now represent the second line of defense for the Senatorial opponents of the League of Nations and the treaty of peace. They took their stand on amendments, but despite their heavy use of poison gas and incendiary weapons—racial and religious issues among them—they have been forced to retreat with ranks broken and great rhetorical losses. Behind reservations now the obstructionists are crouching, half standing, half stooping, to facilitate their racing farther rearward when emergency presses. And back they must go; back to a final acceptance of the treaty and the League of Nations as the people want it. There will be new bombardments from these enemies of the treaty. That is inevitable. They will deliver counter attacks and hurl oratorical bombs in vast numbers at the President and the other supporters of the treaty. But in the end they must surrender their position on reservations as they have already withdrawn from their stand on amendments.

GEN. GARNETT AT LANCASTER.

The Lancaster Record, speaking of Garrard's court-day crowd, says:

Politics was the talk of the day and many came to hear Governor Black who was billed to speak, but was detained at Frankfort on account of important business that he couldn't leave.

He was well represented however by Hon. James Garnett, of Louisville, who spoke for nearly two hours to an audience that filled the court house to overflowing. His speech was loudly applauded many times and pronounced by many as the best they had heard here in many months.

The Election is Over.

And the State of Kentucky will Soon be in the Hands of the Republicans.

Mr. Morrow Defeats Governor Black by a Decisive Majority

And All the Subordinate Republican Candidates for Office Elected.

TAX LAW AND PROHIBITION DID THE WORK.

Mr. J. R. Garnett Defeated for State Senator.

The election was very quiet in Adair county, though the heaviest vote ever polled in Adair was cast yesterday. The Republicans polled something close to two thousand votes and the Democrats nearly seventeen hundred. We have a table of the vote as cast by precincts, but it is impossible to give the figures correctly until the election board meets and counts the vote.

The Republicans carried the county by about 469 votes in the gubernatorial race, and Mr. Branstetter's vote is about forty less than that of Mr. Morrow. The subordinate Republican candidates for State offices ran with the Governor.

Louisville gave Mr. Morrow about eight thousand majority and Gov. Black's vote in Western Kentucky did not come up to expectations, and other heavy Democratic counties fell down.

There is much speculation as to the cause of Gov. Black's defeat, but most people give as their opinion that the tax law and prohibition were the principal causes. In the cities the foreign element, especially the Germans, were bitterly opposed to prohibition.

Next week we will publish a table showing the official vote of Adair county.

The Republicans of Adair county are jubilant over the result which is natural. All the Democrats can do is to watch them smile, get busy for the next campaign, having in mind the correction of mistakes made in the contest just closed. Gen. Jas. Garnett wired Mr. J. W. Flowers late last night that Mr. Morrow's majority in the State would be easily twelve thousand.

The vote on the prohibition amendment in the State, is believed to have been lost.

ALARMING.

The following has been sent us, by the investigating committee, at Louisville: "Up to 1912 tuberculosis caused more deaths than any other disease but after that time, because of the work done by organizations formed to teach sanitation and prevention and the use of modern methods of fighting the plague and its spread, it dropped to third place in the list of fatal diseases. But heart disease and pneumonia, the leaders in the list, lead tuberculosis by only eight-tenths and five-tenths of one per cent respectively.

"There are about twenty-nine thousand nine hundred living cases of tuberculosis in Kentucky. Unless these patients are properly cared for or taught to care for themselves every active case may become the focus for five other cases. We are trying to stop the needless sacrifice of human lives by teaching the victims of this disease to practice the simple laws of sanitation in their homes, in public places and among their friends.

"In Louisville alone there are about three thousand cases of tuberculosis and last year there were five hundred deaths from the disease. We are trying to stop the ravages of the white plague in Kentucky and with the help of the generous citizen of the State this end ultimately will be achieved.

"Kentucky has never failed to respond to the calls for help through the Red Cross Christmas seals. We have no thought it will do so this year, but rather that it will give generously the willing gift of a generous and prosperous people to aid the unfortunates suffering a living death from a disease than can be cured if proper methods are followed.

Hon. Clem Huggins, of Louisville, and Congressman King Swope spoke to large audiences here last Monday. Mr. Huggins represented the Democratic party and Capt. Swope the Republican. Mr. Huggins spoke in the open to about a quarter of an acre of enthusiastic Democrats who stood in front of him on the West side of the square. His denunciation of the Republican party was severe and he was cheered from the beginning to the ending of his address. He spoke with great force and called a spade a spade. Mr. Swope occupied the court-house and his address was along the lines he introduced here when he spoke in the interest of his candidacy. Mr. John B. Coffey introduced Mr. Huggins and Capt. Swope was presented by Judge H. C. Baker.

Editor News:—

Columbia, Ky.,
Am enclosing $1.50 for one years subscription for the Adair Co., News, and perhaps a few lines from the automobile manufacturer center would be of interest to our Adair Co., friends.

We have been in Detroit about six weeks and find it to be a very busy city, containing many factories and employing many workmen, of about every nationality, the largest percent viz, Bolsheviks, Italians, Germans, Canadians, and Jews,

The population of Detroit is about 1,000,000 of which only 6,500 are Americans and 150,000 Germans.

I believe the population of Detroit is growing more rapidly than that of any of any other city of the U. S. due to the increasing automobile industry located here, it is also located on the Detroit river, which is the greatest commercial water-way in the world. Through which throbs the commercial life of the Great Lakes.

Detroit occupies eleven miles of river frontage mostly railway and steamer docks.

There is a prevailing difficulty for providing home for the continual inflow of emigrants and many new houses are being erected to accommodate them, especially homes for the employee of the factories.

Belle Isle located in the Detroit river, is only a few minutes ride by boats from the Detroit locks, is said to be unequalled in the world, for its beauty as a park.

Its special attractions are the zoological gardens and the horticultural building which contains animal and plant life from the four corners of the world, a public bath house with 800 rooms, 5 1/2 miles shore drive and many magnificent boulevards for motorists.

Detroit is a great health resort and is a center for excursionists and tourists from all parts of America.

Besides being the center of the automobile industry and many other articles are made here such as cash registration, steel and aluminum castings and many different kinds of machinery.

Columbia, - - - - - Kentucky.

In spite of the scarcity of housing accommodations we succeeded in finding a suitable location, being only four blocks from the Maxwell Motor Co., where we are employed, also on the Oakland ave carline 40 minutes ride from the Cadillac square.

Thus far the steel strike has not noticeably affected the progress of the manufacture of motor cars, since they had a sufficient supply of steel and on hands when strikers went out.

Old H. C. of L. is also located in Detroit, board ranging from $9.00 to $12.00 per week, but all of the factories pay good wages which therefore enables the employee to meet the high prices. Detroit has also an Independent industry of personal interest developed from the cosmopolitans of her nationalities of people, which is "do the other fellow before he does you," in fact this is a growing industry about every where.

Hope some of our friends of Adair will find something of interest in this letter, if you find space for it in the News. Waiting to receive our first issue of the News.

Respectfully.

James and Calvin Cox.

Helpfulness of Criticism.

It is natural to resent criticism. We dislike anything that shakes our self-complacency or compels us to think. Here and there a man has learned the real service of criticism and usually he is a man who has attained to more than average success in life. We are all more or less like the proverbial ostrich. We like to convince ourselves that our faults are really our virtues, in that we are doing good work in the world when in truth we are lagging far behind our actual capacity and drifting along rather than really living.—William E. Towne.

Profiteering in Flour.

What is profiteering? It is the charging of more than a fair profit for goods, for the necessities of life particularly. People must eat. Bread is the staff of life. S. Thruston Ballard candidate for Lieutenant Governor, or on the Republican ticket, is a miller, a manufacturer of flour from which bread is made. By his own statement to the Kentucky High Cost of Living Commission he sold flour in Louisville at $1.10 a barrel more than he is selling goods in New Orleans, Louisiana. It is not to be supposed that a hard-headed business man like Mr. Ballard would sell his goods at less than a profit in New Orleans. Therefore, the conclusion is inevitable that Mr. Ballard sold flour in Kentucky at $1.10 more per barrel than a reasonable profit. No wonder he is a rich man and no wonder the Republican party, looking for men with means to help it elect a State ticket, has selected him as one of its candidates.

To the Bankers of Kentucky.

The Government is now prosecuting a National Thrift Campaign, and I hope that all the banks in this state will give this movement their unqualified support. The organizing of Saving societies for the purchase of Thrift and Savings Stamps and the new Treasury Savings Certificates will convert many spenders into savers. Every new saver created ultimately becomes bank depositor. Every new bank depositor, no matter with what bank he starts, is a distinct additional asset to the entire banking community. A person once having acquired the habit of saving, will be a bank customer all his life. For this reason every Bank in this state should push this movement to the utmost of its ability, not forgetting that every Thrift and Savings Stamp and Treasury Savings Certificates sold will ultimately build up a savings account.

Thrift practiced means the retaining of wealth in the hands of those who earn it, instead of allowing it to become concentrated in the hands of the few. Nothing will stabilize our Government more than the bringing about of this general condition of thrift.

Very truly yours,
JAMES D. BLACK, Gov.

NURSE OFFERS

HER OPINION OF TONIC'S MERITS.

"Trutona Worked Like Magic in My Case," Mrs. Richey Asserts.

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 4.—Mrs. S. A. Richey, 66 years old, of 441 South Sixth street, has been a resident of Paducah for the past twenty-seven years, twenty-one years of which have been spent as a practical nurse. These years of experience as a nurse have given to Mrs. Richey a thorough knowledge of many different medicines a fact which will lend inestimable force to her endorsement of Trutona, the perfect tonic.

"Trutona has worked like magic in my case," is the tribute paid the tonic by Mrs. Richey.

"I'd had kidney trouble for several years," she said. "This caused pains in my back so severe at times that I could hardly get around. My stomach was in bad condition, too. After eating I'd feel bloated and would be annoyed by a shortness of breath. Because of my weakened kidneys I would have to get up seven or eight times during the night."

"The relief I've gained from Trutona has been remarkable. I never have to get up in the night now, on account of my kidneys. The pains in my back have disappeared. And my stomach—well, it's sufficient to say that I enjoy my meals as never before. The beauty of it is that everything I eat agrees with me. I can recommend Trutona as the medicine that gives relief and I hope others suffering as I did will try it."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Columbia at Paul Drug Store. Adv.

Two Thieves Caught.

Last Monday night two colored men entered the barn of D. D. Sandige, a farmer on the Columbia pike about two miles south of our town, and stole his automobile. The theft was discovered Tuesday morning and Mr. Sandige traced the thieves some distance on the Campbells-ville pike and then telephoned to several cities giving a description of the machine and the men suspected. About noon he received word that the machine had been located a short distance south of Campbellsville, but the men had abandoned the machine and escaped. The sheriff of Taylor County captured the two suspects on a truck before they reached Green River Bridge, enroute to Columbia. They proved to be Willie Graves, a discharged colored soldier, and Leslie Sterman. They were lodged in jail in Campbellsville and

BAPTISTS PLAN VIGOROUS WARFARE UPON TUBERCULOSIS IN THE SOUTH

SANATORIUM AT EL PASO, ESTABLISHED FOR THIS PURPOSE, WILL GET FINANCIAL AID FROM 75 MILLION CAMPAIGN—EDUCATIONAL PROPAGANDA TO INFORM PEOPLE ON HOW TO COMBAT PLAGUE WILL BE CONDUCTED.

Administration building of Southern Baptist Sanatorium for treatment of tuberculosis patients, located 4500 feet above sea level.

Do you know that tuberculosis is more prevalent in the South than in any other part of the country?

That the death rate from tuberculosis here is 14.2 per cent greater than for the nation as a whole, and greater than in any civilized nation on the globe with the exception of China?

That more than 150 people a day, or 57,782 a year, die in the South and the Southwest from this dreaded disease?

That there are within the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention 275,000 persons actively infected with the great white plague and an equal number have inactive infection?

That the money lost to the South each year from tuberculosis is $175,000,000?

These startling facts were brought to the attention of the Southern Baptist Convention at its session in 1916 and a resolution was at once adopted to try and check the spread of the disease and provide relief as far as possible for those already infected with it.

As a result of this movement there was established in the high, cool, rare atmosphere of El Paso, Texas, the Southern Baptist Sanatorium which aims to minister to as many patients as possible and to disseminate throughout the South and Southwest the information that will result in checking the further spread of the disease and enable those who have just contracted it to obtain immediate cures by proper methods of living.

With the active assistance of the business interests of El Paso a modern sanatorium, located upon a beautiful tract of 143 acres on the side of Mt. Franklin, at a height of 4,500 feet, was opened for the healing of the people, and through the Baptist 75 Million Campaign this institution will receive $500,000 for the erection of additional buildings and $500,000 for an endowment that will enable the sanatorium to minister to those indigent patients who are unable to pay for treatment.

That there is an imperative need for an institution of this character is shown in the fact that all institutions in the South and Southwest for the treatment of tuberculosis have a total capacity of only 8,757 beds, or one bed for only one person out of every sixty in this section who are afflicted.

Everything connected with the Baptist Sanatorium is modern and of the very best, but its present equipment is far too small to cope with the demands that are made upon it. Of the improvement fund that is to be provided, $100,000 is available already and architects are already designing new buildings worth $450,000. These will be constructed just as rapidly as possible.

While the sanatorium is being operated by the Baptists, it will be open to the people of all creeds and no creed. Due to the crowded conditions, however, it is necessary that arrangements be made in advance by communicating with Dr. H. F. Vermillion, superintendent, at El Paso.

The sanatorium is under the general supervision of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, and in addition to treating patients who have already contracted tuberculosis, it will seek, through a campaign of publicity, to so inform the people of the South and Southwest on the nature and prevention of this disease that the alarming death rate from the white plague can be immediately lowered and finally reduced to the minimum.

By paying these needs that the $20,000,000 apportioned to Christian education will be expended.

To these institutions the denomination is looking for its trained leaders to help carry forward the work along every line contemplated in the $75,000,000 campaign. In Texas alone there are 700 pastorless Baptist churches and probably the same proportion holds in the other states. It is hoped the campaign will call out 5,000 volunteers for ministerial and missionary work and these institutions will be asked to equip these young men and women for their work.

Last year, reports show, over 6,000 students in these institutions took voluntary courses in Bible and mission study; nearly 4,000 of them attended student prayer meetings; ministerial students pastoring churches raised more than $80,000 for church benevolences and led more than 10,000 people to profess Christ. The campaign hopes to result in enrolling 35,000 young men and women in Baptist schools within the next five years.

The South-wide institutions that will benefit from the campaign include Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and Women's Training School at Louisville, Ky., Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Women's Training School at Fort Worth, Tex., Baptist Bible Institute, New Orleans, and Negro Theological Seminary at Nashville, while aid will be given to every Baptist institution of learning in all states of the convention territory, and to new Baptist colleges that will be established in Arkansas, Florida, Illinois, Louisiana and New Mexico, along with one somewhere in the region of the Appalachian mountains yet to be definitely located.

BAPTIST CAMPAIGN COMES CHEAPLY.

Expense in raising the $75,000,000 sought by the Baptists of the South in their 75 Million Campaign will amount to considerably less than one per cent, Dr. L. R. Scarborough, general director, announces. This includes the expenses of both the general headquarters and the eighteen state headquarters. This is probably the lowest overhead expense in the history of large money-raising efforts in this country.

WILSON INVADERS HOUSE OF FOES

CARRIES HIS BATTLE FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS INTO HOME OF HIS ENEMIES.

GIVES COST OF GREAT WAR

Inform Them of Lives and Treasure Poured Out to Save Civilization.

(By Mt. Clemens News Bureau)

Aboard President Wilson's Special train—Carrying his war against those who oppose the adoption by the United States of the peace treaty and the covenant of the League of Nations into their households, President Wilson last week invaded California.

And there, where the question on which league opponents have hammered the hardest, that of Shan Tung—is of most interest, the president found the same enthusiasm among the people for peace and for insurance against future wars. The people want the long controversy ended. They want this country to be able to again turn its undivided attention to social, economic and industrial development. Their leaders may not feel this way, but judging from the expressions which met the president on every side. The leaders have overstepped the limits of the peoples patience in their stubborn determination to force a change in the great document.

Must Take This League.

"We must take this League of Nations," said the president, "for there is no way in which another can be obtained without compelling reconsideration by the powers. And it would sit very ill upon my stomach to take it back to Germany for consideration."

"All over the world people are looking to us with confidence our rivals along with the weaker nations. I pray God that the gentlemen who are delaying this thing may presently see it in a different light."

Germany, the president declared, is taking new courage from our delay in ratifying the treaty and her newspapers and public men were again becoming arrogantly outspoken.

Deeply impressive were the figures of the cost of the late war, in lives and dollars. It was the first time that the official statistics have been made public and the tremendous totals shocked the president's audience.

Shows Cost of World War.

"The war," said President Wilson, cost Great Britain and her Dominions $38,000,000,000; France $26,000,000,000; the United States $22,000,000,000; Russia $18,000,000,000; Italy $13,000,000,000 and a total, including the expenditures of Japan, Belgium and other small countries, of $123,000,000,000.

"It cost the Central Powers as follows: Germany $39,000,000,000; Austria-Hungary, $21,000,000,000; Turkey and Bulgaria $3,000,000,000.

"The United States," the president said, "spent one million dollars an hour night and day for two years in its struggle to save civilization. All this, however, fades into insignificance when the deaths by battle are considered. declared the president. Russia gave 1,700,000 men; Germany 1,600,000; France 1,350,000; Great Britain 900,000; Italy 364,000; the United States 50,300. In all, almost 7,500,000 men perished in the great struggle, or 1,500,000 more men than died in all of the wars of the previous 100 years.

Should Remember Recent Horrors.

"These are terrible facts, and we ought never to forget them. We went into this war to do a thing that was fundamental for the world and what I have come out on this journey for is to determine whether the country has forgotten or not. I have found out. The country has not forgotten and it will never permit any who stands in the way of the fulfillment of our great pledges, ever to forget the sorrowful day he made the attempt."

Arbitration and discussion, the president pointed out, must replace force of arms in the settlement of world controversies. Constantly he dwells upon the fact that all the nations in the League agree to do one of two things, first to submit their differences to arbitration, in which case they agree to abide by the decision rendered, or, if unwilling to arbitrate, to have their case discussed by the Council of the League, in which case six months is granted for discussion. Three months must elapse following the result of this last step in arbitration before the nation concerned can declare war.

Holds Out Hope For Ireland.

The president took advantage of questions propounded by the San Francisco Labor Council to give the inference that he believes Ireland can bring her case before the League of Nations for settlement when the League is actually in existence.

Shan Tung, he declared, will be returned to China. Japan, he said, had given her solemn pledge to that effect. And with the League of Nations in force, said the president, we can, if occasion arises, stand forth and say, "This shall be done."

RALLY FOR THE THIRD RED CROSS ROLL CALL

THE quota of funds for the Lake Division—Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky—for the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2-11, is $1,880,000, according to the recent announcement of MacKenzie R. Todd, campaign manager for the division.

This is the Lake Division's share of the $15,000,000 fund asked from the nation to complete American Red Cross relief work abroad during the coming year.

The goal of the Third Red Cross Roll Call is universal membership. In the last drive for funds, the Lake Division quota was $9,400,000. It was oversubscribed by more than four and a half million.

State and county quotas will be announced shortly by state managers: R. F. Crane, Ohio; John R. Downing, Kentucky; Clarence Stanley, Indiana. This will be the only Red Cross campaign this year. Each year hereafter there will be an annual Roll Call for members, to perpetuate in America the service to Americans that is to be the Red Cross peace time work.

CHINESE BECOME SOCIAL PIONEERS

Men and Women Form Good Fellowship Club Together Under Y. W. C. A. Leadership.

The Good Fellowship Club has made its appearance in society in Hangchow, China.

It began with the desire of a progressive young Chinese doctor to give his compatriots, especially the Christians, some healthful form of social intercourse.

Chambers for a good, clean, social life among Chinese people are very scarce. Until recently becoming a Christian often meant cutting oneself off from one's friends and relatives, also from feast days and festivals. As for joint meetings of men and women—well, such a thing was never heard of in decent society.

The young doctor's plan of having a club where men and their wives might come together to enjoy a good time with each other was discouraged and snuffed at. However, a few people agreed to be pioneers in the cause of social intercourse, and Y. W. C. A. social staries agreed to help make the club a success.

At first the meetings of the club were laughed at by outsiders and the whole affair considered a joke. However, the members kept on meeting, first at one house and then at another. Soon the men got over the feeling of strangeness at starting out with their wives on Tuesday evening for a friend's home. The women began to enjoy the outing and to take part in the discussions—an intelligent part, too—much to the surprise of their husbands.

The membership grew. The club's fame began to spread. At first the discussions of the club were conducted in English. Soon it became necessary for them to be carried on in Chinese so that more of the women could understand and take part. Many of the scoffers began to apply for admission. The members began indulging in much friendly chaffing and occasionally forgot their dignity to play jokes on one another. Finally it became so large that it had to be divided into two sections, which met separately three Tuesday evenings in the month and on the fourth Tuesday met together for a joint session, with a special program.

Students just returned from American and German colleges, an old Buddhist scholar who is particularly interested in the discussion on Buddhism and Christianity, merchants, railroad and government officials compose the men's side of the room. The women are still a bit shy about talking in front of so many people, but many of them show signs of great executive ability and power of leadership. They are all well poised, clear thinking individuals, who will have a great influence on China's future. They discuss among themselves group meetings in their various churches, the lack of amusements for Chinese women, social service work, subscription lists for the orphanage, cake making, types of stoves, baby diets, the latest engagement and other topics such as one would hear discussed by a group of women gathered together any place in America.

The social part of the evening is given over to games, which at first astounded the sober Chinese gentlemen, but which they take up with great zest after the first evening. And their wives enjoy it just as greatly.

Real American picnics are the latest thing which the club has tried, and they are a great success. A Christmas play is being planned now.

$4,800,000 TO BE RAISED FOR HOSPITALS

A modern hospital illustrative of the type of buildings Southern Baptists are employing in the relief of human suffering.

In their work of relieving human physical suffering Southern Baptists at present own and control fourteen hospitals and there are under course of construction and about ready to be opened at least two more, with considerable progress made toward the erection of others. All of these institutions are liberally patronized and are self-supporting but all of them need to be enlarged in order to meet the rapidly-growing demands upon them. The demand for charity work is especially urgent and in order to enable them to thus render a needed service to those who are least able to help themselves as well as to provide larger facilities for the regular work the hospitals are doing the sum of $4,800,000 has been apportioned to them from the proceeds to be raised in the Baptist 75 Million Campaign.

This work of relieving the physical infirmities of men, women and children and thus putting them on the road to better health and larger efficiency and usefulness was begun within the bounds of the Southern Baptists' convention in 1890 when the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium was opened in St. Louis. From a very small beginning in a residence with less than a dozen beds, this institution has grown into a modern institution with more than 300 beds.

Other Baptist hospitals in the South include Baptist Hospital, Muskogee, Okla.; Baptist Hospital, Miami, Okla.; Baptist Hospital, Cushing, Okla.; Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, Tenn.; Georgia Baptist Hospital, Atlanta; Oklahoma Baptist State Hospital, Oklahoma City; Baptist Hospital, Columbia, S. C.; Texas Baptist Memorial Sanitarium, Dallas; Baptist Hospital, Houston, Tex.; Baptist Hospital, Alexandria, La.; Baptist Hospital, Jackson, Miss.; St. Louis Baptist Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., and the Kansas City Baptist Hospital at Kansas City, Mo.

CAMPAIGN MANAGER ANNOUNCES DIVISION ROLL CALL QUOTA

THE Red Cross Third Roll Call aims to sign up 2,490,000 Red Cross members for Red Cross service in 1920, according to an announcement made at Lake Division Headquarters today by MacKenzie R. Todd, campaign manager for Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

Chapters in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, which number 357, have been supplied with campaign material from division headquarters in preparation for the November 2-11 drive for Universal Membership.

Cincinnati chapter has sent an order for 70,000 buttons over the number assigned the chapter by division headquarters. Toledo has promised 30,000 at least and Dayton is counting on enrolling at least 53,000 members. Ashtabula has written Mr. Todd asking for double last year's quota.

To date 85 of the 108 Ohio chapters—90 of the 144 Kentucky chapters and 69 of the 105 Indiana chapters have appointed special Roll Call chairman to conduct local campaigns for members. Red Cross peace service to humanity is as important as the organization's war service, in far-reaching effects for the betterment of humanity.

NOTES ON ADAIR COUNTY.

BY JOHN AVROE STEELE

COOL DANIEL TRABUE.

Cool Daniel Trabue, who, it will be observed from the foregoing notes, was a factor in the capture and driving away of the Harpes, and whose young son, John, was among those slain by the Harpes, was a prominent figure in the early history of Adair county. He was born in Chesterfield county, Virginia, on the 31st day of March, 1760. He was a son of John James Trabue, who was a son of Antoine Straboo, or Anthony Trabue. The grandfather, Antoine Straboo, was a Huguenot, and fled from France to England, to escape the persecution, which was then being carried on by the established church and government of that country against the Huguenots, who were followers of the teachings of John Calvin. This was in the year, 1689, when Antoine Straboo was a very young man, and owned a considerable estate in his native country. Under the law, then put in force, in France, one, was a heretic, as the dissenters from the established church were called, was liable to be put to death and his property confiscated. This cruel law fell with the greatest force upon the Huguenots. The borders of the country were guarded, and the Huguenots were not allowed to escape, if they chose to do so. Antoine Straboo effected his escape by pretending to be a peddler of wines, and when he reached the borders of France, he abandoned his cart and wines and, escaping the guards, succeeded in reaching an English ship, and was taken by it to England. His estate was confiscated after his escape from France, and he never received anything from it. He married a French Huguenot girl, who had escaped the persecution and reached Holland. The mother of Col. Daniel Trabue, was a lady of French extraction, whose parents had likewise fled from France to avoid the persecution. In the year, 1700, the King of England proposed, that if the French Huguenots, in England, would emigrate to Virginia and assist in populating and building up that country, that he would give them lands, and assist them until they should become self supporting. Antoine Straboo, and a goodly number of others accepted the proposition of the King and emigrated to Virginia. They were given lands on the James river, at a point, which was called Mannikin Town. Col. Wm. Byrd, who was a neighbor, assisted them in securing grants for the lands, which they received, and as it was necessary to do the business in the English language, he did the necessary writing. Either by accident, or design, he wrote the name Anthony Trabue for Antoine Straboo, and the lands, received by Straboo, were granted to him in the name of Anthony Trabue. Afterwards, he seems to have taken the name, in which the lands were granted, and his descendants have since borne the name of Trabue, instead of Straboo. Hence, it will be observed, that the family was a French one and Col. Daniel Trabue was purely of French extraction.

In 1776, when he was sixteen years of age, he was required to do duty as a militiaman, and engaged in a military expedition against the forces of Lord Dunmore, who was then the royal governor of Virginia, as the representative of the British government, against which Virginia and the other colonies had gone into rebellion. In 1777, the Virginia General Assembly authorized Gen. Geo. Rogers Clark, to raise an army and proceed to the defense of that portion of Virginia, which now constitutes the states of Kentucky, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana. Among others, who took service with Gen. Clark, were James Trabue, who acted as Commissary-General for the various forts and military forces in Kentucky, and also, Col. Daniel Trabue, who was then about seventeen years of age, and who was made a lieutenant, and served under his brother, James. In the winter of 1777-1778, Gen. James Trabue, accompanied by the subject of this sketch and six other persons, made their way through the wilderness, and over the Cumberland mountains to Boonesborough, at which place, they arrived in the latter part of March, 1778. During the last four days of the journey, they had nothing to eat, and found the garrison and inhabitants, of Boonesborough, subsisting entirely upon meat. Col. Daniel Trabue was made a deputy for his brother, the Commissary-General, and put in charge of the stores for the army at Fort Logan, which was situated at the point where the city of Stanford, now is. It was, also, his duty to collect provisions for the armed forces, which he did, by hunting in the woods, and employing others to hunt and to kill bears, deers and turkeys.

While at Fort Logan, he, however, engaged in many forays against the Indians, who were, at that time, very numerous and troublesome in central Kentucky. He was an inmate of Fort Logan, at the time, the Indians wounded Gen. Ben Logan, and when they made a foray against Fort Logan, at the same time, Boonesborough was besieged. During the time, he was on duty at Fort Logan, the first court held for the county of Kentucky, and the first, held in the present state of Kentucky, was held at Fort Logan. Col. John Bowman, Captain Ruddle, Col. Richard Calloway, and General, then Captain Benjamin Logan, were the justices, who composed the court. As instances of the dangers of life, then prevailing in Kentucky, as a party of twenty men were proceeding from Harrodsburg to Stanford to attend this court, they were fired upon by Indians, and a man, whose name was Page, was killed. Capt. Logan, with a party of men, went to the assistance of Page, and were fired upon by Indians and one Luper was severely wounded. The Indians fled into the cane brake, but Logan and his men pursued them, and killed all of the Indians, in the party, except one.

My mission to this city was not of my choosing, but to aid and comfort my widowed sister in her great distress due to the accidental killing of her only son, on the 11th of October. It was a case so often told, the pistol was thought to be unloaded. Chas. Brasel, my nephew, a boy in his 14th year was killed, by the discharge of an automatic revolver, while in the hands of a boy friend, of near his age and at the boy's home, a few yards distance from my sister's residence. He was shot near the heart and only lived a few minutes.

He was a bright boy, a favorite with those of his age and was highly regarded by the older people, who knew him. In this tragical death, in these days of sorrow and distress, my sister's many friends did everything possible to comfort and aid. The floral offering was beautiful and a strong tribute of esteem and sympathy that can not fade from the memory of those so grief stricken. The body was laid to rest by his associates-The Boy Scouts, with their impressive rites. Mrs. Nona Jeffries, of Vaughan, N. M., some two hundred miles distant, came to this house of mourning just as soon as she received the sad news. No words of mine are adequate to express my appreciation or that of my sister for such sacrificial evidence of love and esteem to give comfort in time of deepest distress.

Mrs. Jeffries' father, W. F. Jeffries, who died some years ago, and I were partners in business a couple of years and became as good and true friends as ever lived. My attachment to the entire family and theirs to me was as strong as possible to be and remains so to this good hour. A multitude hold them in the highest esteem, but no one more so than myself. It was years ago that my sister, while visiting me, became acquainted with Miss Nona and they became friends. It was years after that acquaintance my sister became a widow with two children and Miss Nona became Mrs. Nona Jeffries, having married Mr. Ernest Jeffries, the leading business man in the country in which he lives, a gentleman of the highest type—a man of honor and wealth. Charles was fortunate to have spent a good portion of last summer, with Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries, in their home, and during that time strong attachments came into existence and he called them Uncle and Aunt, while they gave him as much consideration as if he had been their own. His sudden ending is a forceful warning to the many boys in this city who are acquainted with the tragedy, but still, it seems that not only small boys, but large ones and people of mature age meet with similar deaths throughout the country.

This is a beautiful city of 30,000 people and enjoys an altitude of 3,000 feet, while many peaks in the range of mountains punch holes in the sky from 2,000 to 3,000 feet nearer the moon. This section is in reality a desert land, not enough rain to produce a small tree. The Rio Grande is the boundary line between this country and Mexico and furnishes enough water to make this rich valley one of the beauty spots of the great South-west. The land is highly productive, when sufficient water is applied and alfalfa grows luxuriantly, as well as vegetables, wheat, oats, corn, cotton and fruit. El Paso's prestige and present rapid growth is not founded on agricultural surroundings specially, but on climate and location in regard to increasing commerce drawn from the large area of which it is the business center. I have been many miles up and down this broad valley, viewed its barren mountains, grand, sublime. I have enjoyed seeing its rank vegetation, where irrigation unlocks its rich powers. I am enjoying this dry atmosphere, but it does not appeal to me as does the rich prairie lands of Mississippi, where we have the richest of soils and heavy vegetation and water distributed as needed. Improved land here is selling at $250 to $1,000 per acre, and not as deep and lasting as old Mississippi has at $50 to $150. The middle South is the only country after all that offers the best of land and climate for less than half the price of any other part of the entire country. I have enjoyed meeting Rev. Emory Stevenson in a Mission School in this city, teaching the Mexican youth the ways of right living, as well as dispelling their ignorance. He is doing a noble work. Likewise, Mr. J. B. Grider, who enjoys a fine produce business, which is growing into big proportions. I located Mr. J. Hise Myers, a brother to Mr. W. R. Myers—a chip of the old block, who is one of the leading business men of this city. He is a splendid man and enjoys a fine business in the implement line.

I close by stating that I enjoyed the only direct gift Uncle Sam ever gave me, and that was a permit to get out of this country and the privilege of return. My sister, Mrs. Brasel, Mrs. Jeffries, Rev. Stevenson and myself drove over to Jaury one day last week. It is an old Spanish town, given over to all kinds of gambling and dissipation. President Carranza did not meet us due to pressure of business farther South, but it made no difference with me, as I have always considered a true citizen of the U. S., the peer of any Mexican President or European nobility. I close and leave for the real sunny South tomorrow.

Yours.

C. S. Harris.
